Bible reading

Matt 18: 20-35 - New International Version (NIV)

For where two or three gather in my name, there am I with them.”

The Parable of the Unmerciful Servant

Then Peter came to Jesus and asked, “Lord, how many times shall I forgive my brother or sister who sins against me? Up to seven times?” Jesus answered, “I tell you, not seven times, but seventy-seven times.[a]

“Therefore, the kingdom of heaven is like a king who wanted to settle accounts with his servants. As he began the settlement, a man who owed him ten thousand bags of gold[b] was brought to him. Since he was not able to pay, the master ordered that he and his wife and his children and all that he had be sold to repay the debt. “At this the servant fell on his knees before him. ‘Be patient with me,’ he begged, ‘and I will pay back everything.’ The servant’s master took pity on him, cancelled the debt and let him go. “But when that servant went out, he found one of his fellow servants who owed him a hundred silver coins. He grabbed him and began to choke him. ‘Pay back what you owe me!’ he demanded. “His fellow servant fell to his knees and begged him, ‘Be patient with me, and I will pay it back.’ “But he refused. Instead, he went off and had the man thrown into prison until he could pay the debt. When the other servants saw what had happened, they were outraged and went and told their master everything that had happened. 32 “Then the master called the servant in. ‘You wicked servant,’ he said, ‘I cancelled all that debt of yours because you begged me to. Shouldn’t you have had mercy on your fellow servant just as I had on you?’ In anger his master handed him over to the jailers to be tortured, until he should pay back all he owed.

“This is how my heavenly Father will treat each of you unless you forgive your brother or sister from your heart.”

Bible reading

Romans 14: 1 -12 - New International Version (NIV)

Accept the one whose faith is weak, without quarrelling over disputable matters. One person's faith allows them to eat anything, but another, whose faith is weak, eats only vegetables. The one who eats everything must not treat with contempt the one who does not, and the one who does not eat everything must not judge the one who does, for God has accepted them. Who are you to judge someone else's servant? To their own master, servants stand or fall. And they will stand, for the Lord is able to make them stand.

One person considers one day more sacred than another; another considers every day alike. Each of them should be fully convinced in their own mind. Whoever regards one day as special does so to the Lord. Whoever eats meat does so to the Lord, for they give thanks to God; and whoever abstains does so to the Lord and gives thanks to God. For none of us lives for ourselves alone, and none of us dies for ourselves alone. If we live, we live for the Lord; and if we die, we die for the Lord. So, whether we live or die, we belong to the Lord. For this very reason, Christ died and returned to life so that he might be the Lord of both the dead and the living.

You, then, why do you judge your brother or sister[a]? Or why do you treat them with contempt? For we will all stand before God's judgment seat. 11 It is written:

“As surely as I live,’ says the Lord, ‘every knee will bow before me; every tongue will acknowledge God.’”

So then, each of us will give an account of ourselves to God.

Intercessions for Trinity 14 - Sunday 13 September 2020

God of mercy, your love overwhelms us with your generous forgiveness.

Open the hearts of all who profess to follow you with the ability to offer that same forgiveness to any who are genuinely sorry and penitent. Give us both the courage and the desire to forgive those who have wronged us, as you forgive.

May your Church throughout the world be a place where deliverance abounds; a place where people can come and safely shed their guilty burdens and receive the new life which can only be found in you; a place where leaders set the tone of forgiveness and demonstrate it through the examples of their lives.

God of mercy, you hold before us a model of justice tempered by mercy.

Inspire those in political office to promote the restoration of those who offend but sincerely want to change their ways. May countries begin to see in their leaders a growing humility and the strength to recognise their ungodly ways, so that they will be public examples of sincere repentance, taking on the responsibility for their selfish actions which don't have the good of their people in their hearts.

God of mercy, you release us from a debt that we can never pay.

We pray for all out of their depth financially, many of whom live around this church. We pray that you will protect them from unscrupulous sharks who constantly nip at their heels, trying to drag them deeper into despair. Give them the supernatural strength to resist any temptations and an overwhelming desire and ability to reorganise their priorities so that their spending matches their income.

Bless the work of all credit unions and banks which promote responsible lending.

God of mercy, your compassion challenges us to work for the relief from suffering.

Pour out your healing presence on all who struggle to cope with their illness. May they be responsive to your presence with them and may they find hope for an eternal future with you.

We name them silently before you now.....

Lord, stand between us and all that would destroy us and those whom we love.

Merciful Father, accept these prayers through our saviour Jesus Christ.

Amen
